

Houston Area Carriage Association &
Tejas Carriage Association present

Texas Derby Days

August 5-6, 2023

Leon County Expo Center
3637 County Road 305
Buffalo, Texas 75831

Relaxed and fun! Suitable for beginner drivers and horses. Great away-from-home schooling opportunity. Want to go faster? You can do that too. The arena is covered and the Big Ass Fans keep it quite comfortable. A great way to drive in the summer!

Rules for Derby Day:

Two Divisions - Novice and Open

Novice: No canter, Gates A thru C

Open: Any pace, Gates A thru E

Four classes in each - Horse, Pony, VSE, and Pairs (Classes with fewer than 3 entries may be combined.)

How it works:

There will be three Heats of the Derby, one Saturday morning that begins at 9 AM, one Saturday after lunch (time TBD) and one Sunday morning that begins at 8 AM.

Each Heat will consist of one run, plus an optional do-over second run. Only best score will count.

Awards: 1st -4th ribbons in each class for each heat.

"Best Of" prizes for each Division - competitors must have competed in all 3 heats

Entry fee: $90

Stalls: $35/night.

RV hookups: $45/night.

Shavings $10/bag.

You are welcome to come out on Friday afternoon. We will be able to drive on the grounds Friday evening. Driving in the arena prior to competition is at the official's discretion.

Concessions will be available.

Pets are allowed but MUST keep on a leash!
